Committee Reports

Marketing: S. Bar
- Marketing is currently preparing for Old City Fest and the brochure in the fall.
- OCD received positive feedback about the Old City Eats block party in June.
- OCD is working with galleries and the design community in separate committees, and plans to meet with the retail community later this year. The boutiques have been hosting flash sales with a positive response.
- Inside Out returns to Old City September-December.
- After Fest, Marketing will focus on Historic Holiday Nights in December.

Clean and Safe: D. Neff
- Three12 Sports Lounge has received several noise complaints. OCD staff is working on next steps to address this.
- OCD met with Jolly’s Piano Bar, which is interested in opening a crab shack and piano bar at 110 Chestnut, about potential changes to the existing conditional licensing agreement for the location.
- The 6th District has a new police captain, Captain John O’Hanlan.
Economic Development: D. Goldberg

- The Old City Design Guide was published online in June, and received coverage from the Philadelphia Business Journal, Curbed Philly, Development Workshop, and PlanPhilly. Print copies are now available and OCD will distribute them to the Planning Commission and developers working in Old City.
- The Old City Community Fund was awarded a Community Design Collaborative grant for the design of Flagpole Park, and will work with the Collaborative to host a task force meeting of local stakeholders.
- Tree plantings are complete for 2017. OCD paid for seven new trees to be planted in the District, including five trees on Market and two trees on Race. D. Goldberg thanked Joe Schiavo and Janet Kalter of Old City Green for their help with the tree planting process. Staff is working with Old City Green to plan next year’s greening efforts.
- OCD is paying for a parking study, conducted by Econsult, which is currently underway and should be complete by the end of July.
- J. Itzkowitz met with Councilman Squilla, Pat Murdock (American Bible Society), and Jim Cuorato (Independence Visitor Center) and discussed options for Commerce Street. Old City Green plans to apply for a Community Design Collaborative grant for design of the area, with support from OCD.
- OCD hosted the final review committee meeting for the Market Street Traffic Study and is expecting a final report from Jonas soon. OCD is working with City to explore options for Market Street.
- The second CDC memo was reviewed by the Economic Development Committee and the Executive Committee, and will be considered at today’s Old City Community Fund meeting.

Board Development: P. Lavelle

- P. Lavelle thanked Peter Rothberg for agreeing to serve as the Board Development Committee co-chair.
- The committee continues to work through prospects for new Board members and hosted three interviews earlier today. The committee voted unanimously to nominate all three candidates to Board terms starting in January.
