231 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA

• 301 Market St. (ABS Mobility/AT&T dealer) - property owner is doing a historic renovation of façade with some support from Commerce Department’s Storefront Improvement Grant.
• 242 - 244 Market St. (proposed 7-11 store) - representatives from Kimco (landlord) stated they have not finalized a lease with 7-11, and are receptive to other uses for the retail property.
• 40 - 42 S. 3rd St. (brothel) - the property is now for sale, at the request of OCD to the absentee landlord.
• 125 Market St (Kink) - the new sex paraphernalia shop is now operational.
• Assessment collections - Attorney Lee Herman’s hearing is Tues. Jan. 15, 1:30, at City Hall Rm. 426.
• Big Belly purchase - Clean & Safe Committee is purchasing five units along with the companion recycling containers, in addition to the eight units promised by Commerce Department through the City’s Capital Expenditure Budget. The OCD purchase will be with 2012 funds.
• 3rd St. utility construction - the street paving is completed, line striping is being done today.
• 3rd St. lighting project (Phase 2 - between Market & Chestnut Streets) - roadway infrastructure is complete; poles are scheduled to be installed between Christmas & New Years.
  o The lighting fixture style on S. 3rd St. will match N. 3rd St., not the Market St. fixtures.
  o Phila Commerce Dept. is now reviewing our request to help us pay for the gap funds of $50,000 that the OCD board authorized at the November 2012 board meeting; it would be funded by the City’s capital expense budget; Karen Fegely says they are considering an additional financial contribution of $25,000.
• Market St. streetscape - OCD is submitting a funding request for PA RACP capital project funds via Sen. Farnese’s office. The project scope would include replacement of broken slate material in the sidewalks plus other improvements. A. Taus coordinated the development of budget figures for the project.

- Fall tree planting - S. 4th St. has new trees; other locations on our list are yet to be planted.

Auditor’s report: George Pomerantz and Christine DeMott, Gold Gerstein Group, LLC.

The 2011 audit report of Old City District was presented.

- Review and discussion included financial position based on the balance sheet, and statements of net assets and cash flows.
- The audit report summary expressed a "clean opinion" of the organization’s financial situation.
- The balance sheet’s cash and cash equivalents went down $74,000 over the prior year; most of that amount went to leasehold improvements for 231 Market St construction.
- While the cash position went down, equity went up $151,000; indicating that the finances have been operating efficiently.
- Revenues were up $60,000 due to moving the accounting system to an accrual basis; this is in line with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.
- Contracted services - positive savings were achieved due to shopping for contracted services.
- Other expenses were in line - savings were achieved in office operations.
- Net assets increased $151,889.
- Profit & Loss statement shows a fund balance of $736,596, indicating management efficiency.
- J. Ritchie inquired as to whether OCD was benchmarked against other similar organizations. G. Pomerantz replied that is not possible due to confidentiality reasons, but that our organization is in a good position, with strong cash flow and revenues, and operations running efficiently.

Treasurer’s Report: C. McGill

November financial report

- In reviewing the November OCD financial statements, revenue from assessments is light this time of year.
- There were extra expenses for additional security and the financial audit cost.
